

PROGRAM OF APERITÍV
SEMINARS OF
INSTITUTE OF HISTORY OF SAS

January – June 2025

The seminars take place once a month on Thursdays at 10:30 a.m.
in the Central Library of SAS at Klemensova 19

January 16, 2025 (Aperitív +)

Vendula Hnídková

Garden Cities between Utopia and Dystopia

January 30, 2025

Tamara Scheer

Language Diversity and the Austro-Hungarian Army (1867-1918)

February 13, 2025 (for IH SAS employees only)

Veronika Pauková, Adam Hudek, Dušan Zupka a Oliver Zajac

How to Publish in International Journals and with International Publishers?

February 20, 2025

Meta Remec

Re-contextualizing Suicides in a Socialist Society: the Case of Slovenia

Tomáš Gecko

Expert Networks and State Building: Economic Espionage in the Service of Interwar Czechoslovakia

March 20, 2025

Michal Kopeček

Christian Human Rights in East Central Europe Before and After 1989. Between Universalism of Human Dignity and Particularism of National Mission

April 10, 2025

Jogilė Ulinskaitė

Back to the Future, Forward to the Past: The Instrumentalization of History in Politics in Central and Eastern Europe

Martin Zückert

Mesto - krajina – rieka. Potentials and Limits of an Environmental History of Slovakia

April 24, 2025

Ladislav Vörös

A Typical Hungarian Party? The Slovak National Party in Hungary's Political System: Decision-
Making, Mobilization Strategies and Election

May 22, 2025

Richard Vahrenkamp

Czech and Austrian Modernity. Engineers and Industrialists in the Innovation Network Austria -
Czechoslovakia - Germany 1900 to 1938

June 12, 2025

Martin Wihoda

The First Westernization of Central Europe

